

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2169 - HB 2347

January 31, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires X-rays used in postmortem examinations or in a medical practice, and the written findings of the radiologist to be retained for seven years, rather than the current four years.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Increase Local Govt Expenditures - Not Significant

While there may be some increased expenditures because of an increased need for storage space by the Department of Health and local hospitals, the increase is estimated to be not significant.
